Dear Doctor Goodley:

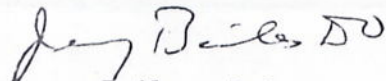

It gives me a great deal of pleasure to offer you an appointment to the Adjunct Clinical Faculty of the College of Osteopathic Medicine of the Pacific. I am pleased to extend this offer at the rank of Professor of Orthopaedic Medicine.

Our Adjunct Clinical Faculty are asked to share their abilities with us through guest lectures, committee service, consulting activity, and in other modes that enrich and extend the mission of COMP.

I do not wish to neglect the opportunity to express my personal satisfaction with this appointment. I am sure that you will be a valuable addition to our staff with benefit to all aspects of the program, and I believe you would find it to be a personally satisfying and productive experience as you grow with us.

We hope and expect to have your decision within two weeks. Please sign the original copy of this letter indicating your acceptance and keep the second copy for your records.

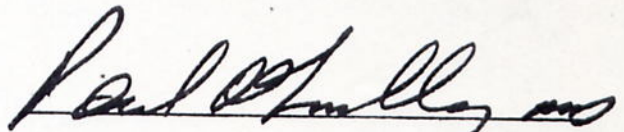

Sincerely,

Jerry Bailes, D.O.
Dean of Academic Affairs
